THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35406

LUCY KUBISZYN
FEBRUARY 23, 1987

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: EG Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-3
Date: 9-29-95

SPRUILL CROWNED 1987 MISS SHELTON STATE

Shelton State sophomore Khristina Leigh Spruill was named the 1987 Miss Shelton State at the Miss America Preliminary pageant held last week. With the crown comes the honor of representing the college at the Miss Alabama Pageant scheduled to be held in Birmingham in June.

Ms. Spruill is the daughter of Paul Spruill and Amelia Spruill and is a graduate of Holt High School. She currently attends Shelton State on a Performing Arts Scholarship and is a member of the Shelton Singers. She was the fourth runner-up in the 1986 Miss Shelton State Pageant and well as in the 1986 Miss Goosepong Colony Pageant. She is majoring in music education with a minor in piano.

First runner-up in the pageant is Ashley Melinda Lewis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie W. Lewis of Tuscaloosa. She is a 1986 graduate of Westend Christian High School where she was a member of the Anchor Club and Who's Who Among American High School Students. She was named Miss West End and was All-Star Cheerleader. She is pursuing a degree in nursing.

Carrie Diahn Johnson was named second runner-up in the pageant. She is the daughter of Ray and Carmen Johnson and is a graduate of Airline High School in Louisiana. She attends Shelton on a Performing Arts Scholarship and sings with a band.

Jennifer Michelle Sherfield, 19, is the third runner-up. She is the daughter of Martha and Willie Sherfield. She also attends Shelton on a Performing Arts Scholarship and is a member of the Shelton Singers.

Fourth runner-up in the pageant is Karen Rolanda Taylor. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Taylor, she is the graduate of Tuscaloosa Christian High School where she was Valedictorian and senior class president, cheerleader and class favorite. She is president of the Shelton Singers and attends the college on a Performing Arts Scholarship.

ORAL HISTORY WORKSHOP PLANNED

Leah Atkins, director of the Auburn University Center for the Arts and Humanities, will be the featured speaker for an oral history workshop scheduled to be held on Friday, March 6, in the Rotary Room of the Public Library.

Sponsored by the Shelton State Oral History Project, in conjunction with the West Alabama Planning and Development Council and the Tuscaloosa Preservation Society, the project will begin at 9 a.m. and will kick off an oral history of the Civilian Conservation Corps which built the State Park at Moundville.

During the workshop, Dr. Atkins will relate her experiences in researching the CCC of Fort Payne in Dekalb County.

According to Arthur Howington, Shelton State's academic dean, "this oral history project on the CCC at Moundville will begin the preservation of West Alabama's various CCC's and will be an invaluable research tool for the area."

The meeting is open to the public. Anyone who is interested in the history of West Alabama, and especially in the Civilian Conservation Corps, is urged to attend.

SHELTON FACULTY MEMBER AND STUDENT RECEIVE AWARD

SHELTON STATE VOICE INSTRUCTOR TED HUDDLESTON won first place in the Graduate Men's Category during state auditions sponsored recently by the National Association of Teachers of Singing.

Dawn Jones, student of Glinda Blackshear, was selected as a finalist in the Sophomore Women's Division.

Other students who participated in the auditions held at the University of Alabama were Miickie Fleming, Karen Taylor, Jeff Miller, Paulette Dockery, Stacy Crowell, Tracey Price, Jeff Hardin and Ronny Mason.

DRUG EDUCATION PROGRAM PLANNED

A COLLEGE-WIDE DRUG EDUCATION PROGRAM HAS BEEN PLANNED AT THE TECHNICAL DIVISION ON TUESDAY, MARCH 17, IN THE LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER. CAPTAIN RONNIE ROBERTSON OF THE NARCOTIC DIVISON OF THE TUSCALOOSA POLICE DEPARTMENT IS COORDINATING THE PRESENTATIONS. SESSIONS ARE PLANNED FOR DAY AND EVENING STUDENTS AND ARE TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED TO BE HELD 8-9:30 A.M., 10-11:30 A.M., AND 12:30-2:30 P.M. KIM INMAN IS CHAIRMAN OF THE EVENT.

NEW OPTIONS APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE

APPLICATIONS for the spring class of the New Options Program are now available from Dr. Paula Sue Hayes, NO Director. In its second year of operation, New Options is a program for displaced homemakers and single parents and has served approximately 150 participants.

In addition, New Options provides a supportive group experience that offers personal counseling, connections to community social services, educational and vocational information and placement in occupational training.

Three quarter sessions are scheduled during the year, each consisting of a 10-week schedule. A choice of day or evening group is offered participants. A mid-week brown bag luncheon is held followed by a discussion session led by the New Options' counselor.

There is no cost to the New Options Program. For more information, contact Dr. Hayes, ext. 82, at the junior college.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

REGISTRATION FOR SPRING QUARTER IS MARCH 5-6. CLASSES ARE SCHEDULED TO BEGIN ON MARCH 16. AT THE TECHNICAL DIVISION, REGISTFATION IS MARCH 16 WITH CLASSES BEGINNING ON MARCH 17.

THE LAST DAY OF CLASS FOR WINTER QUARTER IS THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26. EXAMS ARE SCHEDULED TO BEGIN ON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27.